Awards Skyline Central and Lumière Win Awards

West Properties are delighted to announce that our flagship developments in Manchester Skyline Central and Lumière have both been recognised in the prestigious Daily Mail UK Property Awards.

Now in their third year The Daily Mail UK Property Awards are judged by a collection of experts in the property field recognising excellence and achievement across Britain.

Skyline Central and Lumière were both awarded Best Developments in Greater Manchester. This is a fantastic achievement and reaffirms West Properties commitment to build quality and excellence as standard.

Lumière has already been awarded the Built In Quality award and both developments have also been nominated in the forthcoming Manchester Evening News Residential Property awards in October.
